Summary: The Committee of Credentials is authorized to commence an initial or formal review upon receipt of, among other things, a statement from an employer notifying the Commission on Teacher Credentialing that an employee's employment status has changed in one of specified ways as a result of, or during the pendency of, an allegation of misconduct. Current law makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $100, for a principal, teacher, employee, or school officer of an elementary or secondary school to refuse or willfully neglect to make a report required by law. This bill would specify that a change in employment status due solely to unsatisfactory performance or a reduction in force is not a result of an allegation of misconduct for purposes of those provisions. The bill would require the superintendent of a school district or county office of education, or the administrator of a charter school, to report to the commission any change in the employment status of a credentialholder working in a position requiring a credential not later than 30 days after the credentialholder's employment status changes in one of specified ways as a result of an allegation of misconduct or while an allegation of misconduct is pending.
